China 2010 Pharmaceutical R&D Summit, is the premier China R&D event exploring business-critical issues relating to the pharmaceutical development in China. Attendee will hear from global companies like Pfizer, Sanofi-Aventis and Merck who will share their restructured models and emerging market strategies with us while domestic companies like Jiangsu Hengrui, Simcere and Hutchison will share their insider views on China's pharma industry today. WHO and the Gates Foundation will join us to discuss partnerships between foundations, academia and industry to foster faster development of new therapies for unmet medical needs in developing countries.
